

I have heard FCC is thinking of putting LPFM as a server, which could remove K-Love from the air. K-Love is the only station in the area that teaches values and is positive thinking for young and old alike. It would be in the better interest of our community to keep this radio station on the airways.